

2019 BRADLEY T. BOWLES SCHOLARSHIP

DESCRIPTION OF THE AWARD

Bradley Bowles was born and raised in West Vancouver. He graduated from West Vancouver Secondary School in 1983. Brad was a sports enthusiast and had a great love for life. His positive attitude always inspired others to strive for greatness. Winning was never as important as making sure everyone got a chance to play. Tragically, Brad passed away at 26 years old of heart disease and at that time Brad's family established the Bradley T. Bowles Scholarship Fund in his memory.

Administered by the West Vancouver Foundation, this $1000 scholarship is awarded to a student who possesses the character and qualities exemplified by Brad Bowles: enthusiasm and school spirit, superior athletic commitment, demonstrated academic effort, camaraderie and team spirit.
