

2019 FARIS FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP

DESCRIPTION OF THE AWARD

The Faris Family Scholarship was established in 1988 by the generous contribution of the Faris family. Administered by the West Vancouver Foundation, this $6000 scholarship is awarded to outstanding academic students who have demonstrated community service and will be enrolling in Humanities or Social Sciences at a university in Canada.

The Faris Family Scholarship will distribute one award of $1500 to a West Vancouver student entering their first year of full-time study. The student will receive additional annual installments of $1500 in their 2nd, 3rd and 4th years upon maintaining a minimum average of 76%.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

In order to be considered for the Faris Family Scholarship, a student must:

- Be a resident of West Vancouver;
- Be entering full-time study in the Humanities or Social Sciences at a university in Canada;
- Have a minimum average of 86% while enrolled in their final year of high School;
- Submit a typed essay (not exceeding 500 words) describing why you have chosen your course of study and outlining your career aspirations; and
- Be available for an interview with a member of the Faris family, if selected as a candidate.

SELECTION CRITERIA

- High academic standing
- Evidence of community service
